Dear Mr A'Court,

I have just noticed a mistake in my letter to you of yesterday. At the end of the first paragraph, the reference to your father and mother should of course have been to your grandfather and grandmother. I am sorry about this.

yours sincerely

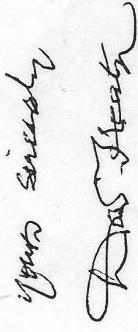

DAVID HEATON

Dear Mr A'Court,

I have just noticed a mistake in my letter to you of yesterday. At the end of the first paragraph, the reference to your father and mother should of course have been to your grandfather and grandmother. I am sorry about this.

My cousin Richard Wheeler-Bennett has sent me a copy of your letter of 18 April about your grandfather John A'Court. I am no genealogist, but am happy to be able to help. From family papers I have put together the enclosed note on the Bennett family, which incorporates the dates you gave for your father and grandfather. It shows with a fair measure of certainty that the witnesses to your father and mother's wedding were her elder brother and sister.

If I can be of any further help, please do let me know. I should add that I was born in 1923 and am the second child of Irene and Trevor Heaton. Richard, to whom you wrote, was born in 1926 and is the youngest child of Clement and Enid Wheeler-Bennett. It is a pleasure for both of us to make the (albeit written) acquaintance of our senior surviving third cousin!
